

CITY NEWS

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. J. Provancher returned this morning from Quincy, Ill., where he completed his studies in the business and banking house at a business college there.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Dixon, with their two daughters, Miss Norma and Eva Dixon; also Mrs. Dixon's sister, Miss Lillian Sarah, left Bisbee on last evening's train for Globe.

W. W. Whitford left yesterday morning for a visit to his old home in St. Paul, Minn.

Attorney E. G. Strickler returned from Tombstone yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bowden and children left yesterday afternoon for Los Angeles.

C. A. Richards was in the city yesterday from Lewis Springs, Ariz., where he was on a business trip.

Walter Hubbard returned yesterday morning from a trip to Naco.

Mrs. I. W. Wallace and children left yesterday morning on a visit to Tombstone.

Mr. McGilme, of Kentucky, arrived yesterday to visit his brother, Charles T. McGilme, whom he has not seen for eight years.

Mrs. John M. Johnson will leave the first of the month to spend the summer in Los Angeles. Mr. Johnson will join her there later.

Mrs. J. J. Walsh and her daughter, Miss Jessie May, spent yesterday visiting at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Childers in the valley beyond Tombstone.

MOVING RESIDENCE.

N. S. Grant and family moved yesterday from their former residence to their new home on Montana avenue in the Johnson addition.

Joan Bolter will soon move from his present residence on Quality Hill to his new home just completed at Warren.

Attorney R. T. Stanford has been having built a home in Warren which is now completed. Mr. Stanford will move there from his present location on Mason Hill.

SATURDAY IS BALLOON DAY.
On another page of this issue The Copper Queen Store advertises to give a balloon ride with every purchase of 50 cents or over, made in their dry goods, men's clothing and furniture store, drug or jewelry departments, Saturday.

Board $1.00 per day at the English Kitchen.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY MEETING.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met in regular session Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. A. M. Martin in the chair. Considerable interesting business was transacted and a pleasant and profitable afternoon enjoyed by the society.

You get money back if you buy a build in Warren.

TWO DRUNKS.
A couple of drunks rounded up by the officers the night before were arraigned before Justice Hogan yesterday morning. They pleaded guilty to the charge and were fined, one $5 and one $7.50. Both were sent to jail in lieu of having paid their fines.

PRISONER TO TOMBSTONE.
Ranger Sam Hayhurst passed through the city yesterday on his way from Douglas to Tombstone with a Mexican prisoner, Jesus Gonzales, who has been bound to the grand jury on a charge of murder. It will be noted that the name of the prisoner is the same as that of the man who stands accused of being the murderer of J. E. Rodman.

Everything market affords at the English Kitchen.

ADJOURN FOR SUMMER.
A pleasant social afternoon was spent by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Wednesday at the church. Mrs. McNeer presided at the business meeting, and after a short session the ladies adjourned for a social good time. Dainty refreshments were served. The hostesses of the day were Mesdames F. J. Hart, Maurice High, and W. R. Mattoon, who acquitted themselves delightfully in this capacity. The aid society has adjourned for the summer and will not meet again until the fall renewal of activities in church and social circles.

EARL BURGESS HERE.
Earl Burgess is here on a visit to his company playmate on the extended tour of the Orpheum. Mr. Burgess at once impresses you as a big man mentally and physically. A dark, good looking man, immaculate in appearance, an eye that is clear and decidedly keen. "Well, what do you think of Bisbee?" was asked him, and the reply came without hesitancy. "It looks good to me. Theatrically I can see its splendid possibilities, and they are great of managers who have played here. And I like your people. They're good natured, big hearted folks, who seem to have come from everywhere. It sure is a bustling community."

Mr. Burgess will remain here for a few days. He is making a general visit to all his attractions now playing the west and he has some decided novelties up his sleeve for the playgoers of this part of the country.

GRASS EXPERT ARRIVES.
Dr. A. S. Hitchcock of the United States department of agriculture arrived in Tucson Monday from Washington, D. C. During the day he visited the Desert Laboratory. He is one of the leading students of American grasses, and is spending his vacation in a several months' sojourn in the west and southwest with a view to the advancement of the science of agronomy.

Board $1.00 per day at the English Kitchen.

DOUGLAS PEOPLE HERE.

Fifty or sixty people were over last night from Douglas to see Mrs. Fluke in "Rosenholm," which she presented at the Orpheum last night. Among others who came over on the special train were Messrs. and Mesdames W. M. Adamson, C. O. Ellis, B. A. Packard, Tom Jones, A. W. Fickenger, James Cogle, George H. Kelley, James Howard, Earl Dals, Mrs. John H. Shaugter, Miss Kate Christy, Albert Stacy.

DANCE LAST NIGHT.

A dance was given last night at the Odd Fellows hall in the Johnson Henninger building. The hall was under the auspices of what is known as the Merchants Baseball club, and was for the purpose of raising funds for the purchasing of uniforms for the members of the team.

Spend your summer vacation in Warren.

B. AND L. NOTES.

The Cochise Building and Loan Association will hold a special meeting of directors Tuesday to consider eighteen new applications for the building of homes. Among the houses recently begun under the auspices of this concern are residences in the Warren district for John W. Baker, Clarence M. Lynn and H. L. Grenard, a home for Charles Pellet in Brewery avenue and Edward Dickinson in Tombstone Canyon.

INITIATION AT FLAGSTAFF.

Local Knights of Columbus have been notified of the fact that on July 5 the first three degrees of the order will be completed at Flagstaff, already being 35 candidates awaiting the conferring of the degrees in the north at the present time. It is probable that a large delegation from Bisbee and Tucson will go north in a special car to attend the ceremonies. The initiation of the Flagstaff class will bring the membership of the order in Arizona up to well over 600 since the first council was installed at Bisbee four years ago.

A. O. H. LADIES MEET.

The ladies of the A. O. H. met Wednesday evening with Mrs. F. R. Keynolds, at No. 79 Clawson Hill. In addition to the business of the order which was transacted, the hostess furnished a delightful evening's entertainment to the attending guests.

TO CAMP A MONTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark P. Johns and children have rented tents to spend a month camping at Lewis Springs. Judge Grier and Mr. Johns will spend Saturdays and Sundays at the camp. A horseback trip to Fort Huachuca is planned by the party and several friends for the fourth of July.

IS A FRENCHMAN.

Pierre Felix Marotti, who was mentioned in yesterday's Review as an Italian, explained yesterday to the Review that it had been misinformed, as he is a Frenchman, born on the island of Corsica. He also exhibited papers as proof that he had seen service in the French army.

NEW HOME IN WARREN.

Contractors James & Phillips have just completed a house at Warren for Oak A. Roads. Mr. Roads' family will occupy the home on their return from a month's visit in Raton, N. M., for which point they will leave Sunday.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS.

Mrs. Pierce Wilson entertained a number of friends last night at her home on Tank Hill. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by all the guests.

TO MOVE NEXT WEEK.

E. F. Sanborn and family will move into their new home at Warren the first of the week.

SOCIAL POSTPONED.

The social which was to be held tomorrow afternoon at the Woman's Club, was postponed on account of the absence of Mrs. S. E. Hazzard.

NEW POSTOFFICE.

Plans Down at Douglas About Complete.

DOUGLAS, June 18.—(Special).—Archibald Holden has nearly completed the plans for the new postoffice building which will be erected by C. A. Overlock at the corner of Tenth street and H avenue. This building will have a frontage on Tenth of seventy-five feet of which thirty-five will accommodate the postoffice room and two store rooms will front on H avenue south of the postoffice.

This building will cost about $5000 and is to be completed by October 1 at which time the postoffice is due to move into it, vacating the old postoffice building at the corner of Ninth and G.
